

Part-Time Audiologist Needed for Flexible, Well-Paying Role

Are you committed to delivering best-in-class patient care? Are you looking for excellent work-life balance? Do you want to be part of a practice that encourages you to bring your whole self to work? Our part-time audiologist position at Acro Audiology Hearing Care Center, the highest-rated audiology private practice in San Antonio, Texas, could be just what you're looking for!

"Acro" means top-most or highest, which is the minimum standard of care each patient receives when they walk through our door. Real talk: Our patients love us, and it's important that they love you, too! Your personality is equally as important as your clinical competence.

If you're seeking a flexible schedule and high earning potential, we encourage you to apply for this position today!

POSITION SUMMARY/RESPONSIBILITIES

- Complete and interpret comprehensive audiology evaluations on adult and occasional pediatric populations.
- Collaborate with referring physicians and organizations.
- Provide comprehensive and timely documentation of patient evaluation, including records review, report writing, follow-up and general interaction.

To succeed in this role, you'll need:

- Strong interpersonal skills
- Doctor or Master's Degree in Audiology
- Interest in working with veterans
- Experience in cerumen removal—but skills training will be provided if necessary
- Current licensure by the Texas State Board of Examiners in Speech-Language Pathology and Audiology
- To be a participating Medicaid and Medicare provider or be eligible to obtain a Medicaid and Medicare provider number

YOUR EARNING POTENTIAL IS UNLIMITED!

- Minimum starting pay is $45 per hour (hourly rate DOE) + commission
- Work a minimum of 5 days – 11 days per month.
- Specifically, you will work the last full week of every month, Mondays, and Fridays as needed/if available.
- 9:00 am – 5:00 pm: Your schedule can be flexible and modified to fit your personal needs.

Ability to commute/relocate:

- San Antonio, TX
- Fort Stockton, TX

APPLY TODAY!